[G] There was a howl that night

A howling like they never [C] heard before [C]

A [D] cry sooo loud old granddad almost [C] hit the [G] door

He said, "I love this child as much as annny one that she [C] ever bore, [C]

But I [D] thank the Lord we won't be having annny [G] more." [G]

Then the baby heard the sweetest sound he'd [C] ever heard [C]

In [D] tones so beautiful he hung on [C] every [G] word

She sang, [G] "Hush, my love, granny's little dove is going to [C] take to the sky." [C]

It was [D] on such a night he learned to fly like a [G] bird. [G]

Now the [C] years have passed and memories come and [G] goooo

He [C] hears that voice that rocked him gently [D] sooo [D7] oo

A [G] calm will descend and there's peace at the end of the [C] darkest night [C]

Some [D] times I cry, sometimes I fly like a [G] bird. [G]

Now the [C] years have passed and memories come and [G] goooo

He [C] hears that voice that rocked him gently [D] sooo [D7] oo

The [G] rain's gonna fall and the winds may blow in the [C] darkest night [C]

Some [D] times I cry, sometimes I fly like a [G] bird. [G]
